CLUB IS IN A BAD SLUMP

Nationals Fail to Show Fight and Birmingham's Tribe Lands the Series.

By WILLIAM PEET.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 17.-The Nationals looked like a poor ball club yes-terday but a thousand times worse this afternoon when Cleveland made a grand clean-up of the series, beating Jim Shav

It is not considered good form to jump on a man when he is down, and all the THREE TRIPLES MADE pasting in the world will not do the Griffmen a bit of good. The club is in probably the worst slump since the Old Fox handled the reins, and it just remains to be seen how the Nationals are mains to be seen now the Nationals are going to pull themselves out of the slough of despond.

Jim Shaw was hit for twelve safe blows, of which half were nasty bound-ing grounders just out of reach, but they invariably came when opposing base runners were within striking distance of home.

Collamore, the Nap hurler, was also batted hard enough to-win any ordinary game, but managed to keep the swats nicely scattered, and was backed up by brilliant support.

Hay Morgan Stars.

Ray Morgan and Howard Shanks car-ried off the batting honors for Washing-ton, and Morgan was easily the star affeld, coming across with a play in the second inning that not only killed a Nap rally, but brought an outburst of ap-plause from the hostile crowd. The Nationals lacked their usual fight The Nationals lacked their usual fight and aggressiveness. As is invariably the case when a club is in a slump, everything breaks badly for them, and the boys pulled out of the Forest City tonight sorely troubled mentally and physically, but with determination to make amends.

Washington put over a run in the first tonics, when Moeller walked. Foster inning when Moeiler walked. Foster forced him at second. Milan grounded to Johnston. Gandil was passed and Shanks hit the first ball pitched to right field for a clean single bringing home

Shanks' double, followed by Morgan's single, scored our other tally in the fourth, but during the remaining chapters the Griffmen had men on the bases base hits that never came Naps Take Lead.

Cleveland scored one run in the second and assumed the lead with a couple in the fifth. The other Naps' tallies were when Shaw fanned Chapman with the bases full in the sixth, the batter kicked so lustily that Manager Birmingham butted in. Hot words were passed and Umpire Dinneen ordered Birmingham out of the grounds. The crowds in the first of the grounds. The crowds in the first base bleachers became so unruly that A 3 TO 1 BEATING

OTHER NATIONAL NOTES

By WILLIAM PEET. Cleveland, Ohio, June 17.-Walter John-

The Griffmen play five games in the Michigan city, and Johnson will pitch the first and final contests.

Johnson himself refuses to be pessimistic over the four crushing defeats handed the Nationals in this city. He has done a lot to cheer up many of the youngsters who appear to have taken to heart the poor showing of the team.

"We'll soon get going again in our old stride." chirped the great pitcher after dinner tonight. "Griffith has too good a ball club to be kept down. Wait until we get over this slump we'll show 'em."

the recent disasters.

In Chicago it was Joe Benz. In Cleveland a rank busher, named Bowman, turned the trick. That the Na-

DETROIT TIGERS ARE BEATEN BY YANKEES

Chancemen Grab Game by 4 to 3 Count.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Detroit, June 17.—Detroit used four pitchers against the Yanks today, but lost, 4 to 3. Good support only saved the Tigers from being butchered. In the first, with the bases full, Holden singled, scoring two runs. Another pair came in the third when Nunamaker, doubled with the bases full. Score:

ABROAE Special to The Washington Herald.
Cambridge, Mass., June 17.—Clement Gile. Yale's lanky siabman, weakened in the fifth inning when Harvard safely hammered out four hits, which eventually returned her a 7 to 2 victory. Mathematically the same was wild for Harvard, and his passes and two wild pitches figured in the three bases full. Score:
